

Looking for the right seal partner. It's always GfA!

✓ Experience
Expertise from more than 45 years of experience

✓ Customer-specific requirements
Special designs and unusual projects implemented quickly and simply thanks to in-house tool construction

✓ Innovation
... is our passion – resulting in our anti-stretching string, which provides stretch protection for an optimal profile fit, and flock strips for easier gliding, plus much more

✓ Customer service
Qualified consultants wherever you need them: on site with you, contactable via phone or email at our headquarters, and always available via WhatsApp to help you with your search for the ideal seal profile

✓ Delivery
Reliable, quick and, in most cases, directly from stock

✓ Sustainability
Energy and resources conserved in our production and day-to-day company operations, e.g. through our own cogeneration plant, a large photovoltaic plant, a closed water cycle, 100% LED lighting, our own electric vehicles, sustainable parcel shipping and the GfA honeybee colony

✓ Product diversity
5,312 seal profiles – a product for every application. Custom-made profiles to meet your requirements in almost every RAL colour from just 200 metres

✓ Quality
The largest range of seals – made in Germany, exclusively from high-quality raw materials and additives, and certified according to ISO 9001:2015 and 14001:2015

✓ Specialists
Six subsidiaries under one roof, producing seal profiles made of TPE, PVC and silicone, welding seal frames and offering an extensive assortment of accessories

✓ Support
A comprehensive range of POS and advertising materials for retailers and processors

✓ Product availability
Quick and simple delivery thanks to a stock of over 1 million metres of seals in a storage space of just 3,000 m²

✓ Satisfaction
According to the 2022 survey: very high satisfaction of GfA customers with our service and our product diversity

✓ Focus on the future
Young talent supported in the accredited training programme

✓ Team spirit
A permanently loyal and reliable family business that trusts and respects its employees, suppliers and customers
